BIOGRAPHY

Made in China and assembled in the USA, Hiatt Zhao was born in Beijing and moved to the U.S. before becoming a teenager. He currently resides in Pennsylvania.

After receiving a secondary public education in Madison, NJ, Hiatt took the summer between high school and college to travel across the U.S. After 45 days riding Greyhound buses, he took over 6,000 photographs and visited over 30 American cities. Consequently, this trip had a dramatic effect on his photography interest.

Soon after, Hiatt attended the University of Rochester (Rochester, NY) majoring in Chemistry with a Management Certificate in Accounting/Finance; along with pre-med, hoping that he would become a surgeon. His interest changed after college and Hiatt returned to his passion, photography.

Hiatt has been taking photographs for many years now and is best known for his abstract architectural photographs, in addition to other more "traditional" photographs. His photos have been publicly exhibited numerous times in galleries since he was 19 years old. Collectors of Hiatt's work often include leaders of corporations. Subsequently, they have been displayed in offices around the world, including Beijing, Shanghai, and New York City. While individuals collect his work, private institutions have also used his photographs commercially.

In addition to his artistic abilities Hiatt is also a technophile and is interested in web programming and graphic design. He also enjoys music, food, nature, and traveling.

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

When photographing my architectural pieces, I aim for the highest aesthetic beauty by applying a balance of composition and a sense of mystery. I am interested in the abstract forms that a building can give to another. The photographs I produce are the result of attention to the urban environment and the post process of carefully manipulating colors. Consequently every photograph is unique.

Though my modern cosmopolitan work often intrigues the viewer I am also a flexible photographer who can capture nature, travel the streets, and document life. Often when viewing my work collectively one might find my subject matter to be very broad. From the most stunning reflections to the worst looking streets, I am here to capture beauty and record life.
